Volume XLV, No. 6,

June 2016

New meeting location: Spokane Valley Eagles, E. 16801 Sprague (across from URM)

After some 30 years at Riverview Retirement Center, the club was told that we could no longer use their meeting room. The Eagles are providing us a free meeting room, but we will also continue to explore other meeting options.

- Directions from Spokane: I-90 east to Sullivan exit, south to Sprague, and east on Sprague
- Directions from Post Falls & Coeur d'Alene: I-90 west to Barker exit, south to Appleway, and west on Sprague

Tuesday, June 28 meeting

- APS presentation on the 1840 British Penny Black—the world's first postage stamp.
- Signups continue for the July 30 Rendezvous in Ritzville.
- 6:15 Seminar: Spokane Postal History—Bring Spokane covers to show and discuss, and see and hear about what others have in their collections.

Tuesday, July 12 meeting

- 6:15 Board meeting
- 7:00 Stamp mixture meeting—Purchase stamps from worldwide collections that the club purchased in the past year. Many of the stamps are in Scott International albums and there are also many covers. Good deals abound! There will also be a new mixture every month. Ken and Loretta Rehfeld will also bring their cat topical collection to show. Come and see a topical collection loaded with cats.

Congratulations!

Anne Harris received a gold medal for her "Horace and Betty Get Married" exhibit at the 2016 Rocky Mountain Stamp Show. The judges called it the perfect postcard exhibit, and it also received the People's Choice Award, which makes her eligible for competition at the 2017 APS AmeriStamp show in Reno Nevada.

IEPS Directors wanted

We are looking for board members. If you are interested, please contact any member of the board. The election is scheduled for November, so please consider volunteering.

For sale: San Marino collection in three Lighthouse hingeless albums. The pages go through 1990. $1,000.00, and the albums alone are worth that. Contact Ken Rehfeld, 924-6375 if you are interested.

May meeting notes

On May 24th, 23 IEPS members enjoyed a night at the Spokane Valley Heritage Museum. Highlights included exhibits on Isaac Stevens, the first governor of Washington Territory, Chief Joseph, the Felts Field Air Derby, Luke Williams, early women's clothing, a 1920 era kitchen, an outdoor display with farm equipment, and plenty of interesting photos that are part of the museum's collection.
